

Brazonics, Inc. Receives Nadcap Materials Testing Certification

Hampton, NH, June 26, 2009 – Brazonics, Inc. (Brazonics), a TSI Group, Inc. company, is pleased to announce their successful completion of Nadcap accreditation for materials testing. Brazonics also holds Nadcap accreditation for heat treating and chemical processing.

Brazonics Quality Director, Steve Horton states, “We pursued Nadcap certification for materials testing because it provides us with real time data and will reduce our dependency on using outside suppliers.”

Performance Review Institute (PRI), the not-for-profit administrative body for Nadcap, states, “Nadcap is an industry-managed, consensus approach to industry oversight of special process and product quality. Nadcap accreditation is an important commitment to continual improvement and quality.”
