TSI GROUP, INC. ANNOUNCES THE ACQUISITION OF THREE COMPANIES

ADB Industries, CGR Technologies and Thompson Industries become the newest members of the TSI Group of companies

North Hampton, NH, November 28, 2007 – TSI Group, Inc. (TSI), a portfolio company of Arlington Capital Partners (www.arlingtoncap.com), announced today the acquisition of ADB Industries, CGR Technologies and Thompson Industries. All three companies are located in the greater Los Angeles metropolitan area, creating a new center of excellence in thermal management and electronic packaging.

Greg Tucker, CEO of TSI, states, “With the addition of a west coast brazing center, TSI can better serve our customer base and offer even more turnkey solutions. Adding these three companies to the TSI Group not only secures our position as the leader in the brazing marketplace, but each company brings a breadth of capabilities that we will incorporate across the organization.”

ADB Industries manages a world-class dip brazing and machining operation that will enhance TSI’s existing brazing capabilities. David Kane, President of ADB, states, “We knew it was time to grow our business. After much research and analysis, it was clear that becoming part of TSI was the best solution not only for us, but for our customers as well.”

CGR Technologies employs industry leading brazing technologies and has the expertise that will lead to best practices across all of TSI. Kevin Rowan, CGR Technologies partner, adds, “We see TSI as an organization that embraces new technology and solutions. CGR will enhance TSI’s capabilities, and can also benefit from their existing infrastructure, capacity and expanded customer base.”

Thompson Industries has unparalleled advanced machining and vacuum brazing capabilities that will be the cornerstone of TSI’s west coast operations as well as add significant capacity to meet the increasing needs of customers. Ken Thompson, President of Thompson Industries, adds, “TSI has a strong presence and high caliber reputation in the brazing market, so we knew they could take Thompson to the next level and would value the expertise we bring.”

“The acquisition of ADB, CGR and Thompson speaks to TSI’s commitment in delivering to its clients superior brazing and thermal management solutions by bringing together the largest brazing capacity and most sophisticated manufacturing techniques in the industry,” said Robert Knibb of Arlington Capital Partners. Peter Manos of Arlington Capital Partners added, “With these acquisitions, TSI differentiates itself with the broadest range of product offerings and unique coast to coast geographic presence which further cements its position as the industry leader.”

TSI Group, Inc. (www.tsigroupinc.com) is a world-class supplier of custom engineered electronic assemblies and thermal management products, enclosures and interconnect solutions for military, commercial and security applications.
